

Great Books Summary

Book Title:

---

The literary genre that this book belongs to is:

Here's my 1-2 sentence summary of the storyline of the book:

The main problem that the author tries to solve in this book is:

Here's Who's Who in this book:

Here's the character I most identify with, and why:

Here's what is beautiful or wonderful about this book to me:

This book stimulates my imagination in the following ways:

This book makes me long for, or desire the following:

The moral lessons this book teaches are:

This book tells about the way people are in the following ways:

The central struggle between good and evil in this book is:

This book describes the following about the qualities of a hero:

This book describes the following about our purpose for being here on earth:

This book teaches or describes the following about God:

Here's why I would or wouldn't recommend this book to my friends: